OPEN SYSTEMS DAYS
 CROATIAN LINUX USERS' CONFERENCE

We cordially invite you to participate in the organization of DORS/CLUC 2025—Open Systems Days / Croatian Linux Users' Conference and support the conference by becoming a sponsor.

The conference will take place for the 30th time, and we are proud of the fact that the event is renowned among local IT professionals and regional business representatives. The importance of DORS/CLUC has been consistently confirmed by open source communities from southeastern Europe, and has become tradition. The conference venue welcomed more than 500 visitors in two days last year. Talks are recorded, streamed online, and published after the conference.

DORS/CLUC regularly receives media coverage from major industry magazines and news websites, with occasional TV and radio appearances. You will find more information about the conference and our sponsorship packages in the following pages. We will gladly offer you a custom package tailored to your needs. Feel free to contact us for further details.

We look forward to our successful collaboration.
